Unique Liturgical Service Features Classical Music

The annual Shabbat morning Liturgical Service, dedicated to classical liturgical music, will take place on Saturday, April 16, beginning at 9:15 A.M. Cantor David Lefkowitz will be accompanied by the Synagogue Concert Choir conducted by Abraham Kaplan, with Neil Robinson at the organ.

The purpose of this unique service is to offer music composed for the synagogue liturgy in the latter part of the 19th century and in our century reflecting the influences of the classical tradition. A result of research conducted for this project has been the rediscovery of many musical treasures which now have been added to the current repertoire of music for our congregation's regular Sabbath services.

Included in the service will be newly transcribed music by David Nowakowsky (1849-1921), the choirmaster of the great Brody Synagogue in Odessa, Russia. Other 19th century composers whose music will be heard at this Shabbat morning Service will be Nissin Blumenthal, Eliezer Gerovitch, Samuel Naumbourg and Baruch Schorr. Composers Sholom Kalib, Abraham Kaplan, our own Cantor David Lefkowitz and his father Jacob Lefkowitz, and Carl Urstein, whose music has been included in other Services, will have selections sung at this service.

"A Classical Approach to Music in Traditional Jewish Liturgy" is a thrilling Sabbath morning Service in which the congregation will delight. Those of the congregation who are concert goers, and those who are not, will appreciate the rareness of this musical experience. Do not miss this musical treat.

This Service is dedicated to the memory of Sarah and Samuel Shapiro.

"AN EVENING WITH VICTOR BORGE" OFFERS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

The invitations were mailed and received and the immediate response from the congregation has been extraordinarily enthusiastic. Victor Borge, the internationally celebrated musician and humorist, is to appear in concert at the Park Avenue Synagogue, Saturday evening, May 7, 1983, as part of the Synagogue's annual fundraising event.

Prior to World War II, the "Great Dane," whose real name is Borge Rosenbaum, was one of Scandinavia's leading entertainers. Mr. Borge, who was noted for his biting satire of Hitler, became a target of the Nazis and, after receiving repeated warnings and threats from them, hurriedly left Finland on the last ship to sail to the United States.

Since arriving in this country Mr. Borge has performed on Broadway, on radio and television, in films, nightclubs and concert auditoriums and at the White House. He has also conducted several major symphony orchestras around the world.

Victor Borge is a unique entertainer combining the skills of an accomplished concert pianist and symphony orchestra conductor with a mastered sense of comedy that has endeared him to the world. The secret of his success, he says is "somehow to maintain a delicate balance between the interests of the musical and non-musical members of the audience. There has to be enough musical content to please the sophisticated, and enough broad humor to satisfy those who have come just to laugh."

Mr. Borge gives generously of his time and money to help worthy causes. He has been knighted by the four Scandinavian countries. Most recently he was knighted by the Finnish Government in gratitude for establishing "Thanks to Scandinavia," a scholarship fund which enables Scandinavian students to study at American universities. The fund was established by Mr. Borge in recognition of the selfless help the Scandinavians provided their Jewish brothers during the Holocaust.

Tickets to "An Evening with Victor Borge" will be sold separately or in combination with supper and dancing, which will follow the performance. The cost of the concert, supper and dancing is $125 per person with tickets to the performance alone available at $18 (for congregants under the age of 30), $25, $50 and $75 per person.

Ambassador Lavie To Speak At Synagogue April 20

In celebration of the thirty-fifth anniversary of Israel's independence, Sisterhood has invited Ambassador Naphtali Lavie, Consul General of Israel in New York, to give the congregation an "Israel Update".

Ambassador Lavie, a journalist and writer of distinction, assumed his current post as Consul General, with the personal rank of Ambassador, on September first, 1981. He has earned the reputation of being a decisive advocate for Israel and a forceful speaker on her behalf.

Ambassador Naphtali Lavie

Mr. Lavie was born in Cracow, Poland in 1926. His father was renowned throughout Europe as a leader of Polish Orthodoxy who possessed the unusual combination of vast Jewish learning and a broad secular education.

Freed from Buchenwald in 1945, he immediately went to Israel with a younger brother whom he had managed to rescue.

HE'S COMING
MAY 7*Israel at Thirty-Five

Just forty years ago, in 1943, the Board of Trustees of Park Avenue Synagogue passed a resolution on what was then called Palestine. Great storm clouds covered Europe, Asia and North Africa, and World Jewry was in the midst of the greatest catastrophe in our very long life.

"Park Avenue Synagogue," the resolution said, "recognizing the importance of Palestine in contributing to a solution of the problem of Jewish homelessness in Europe, and as a fountainhead of Jewish cultural values, endorses the Zionist program." When I read those words from a document in our archives, how happy I was. Forty years ago, and right to the point.

Forty years later and, this month, thirty-five years after the State of Israel was declared, the sage words of the Board still ring in these halls. We are still resolved to support Zionism as a central tenet of modern Jewish life. We are Zionists dedicated to Israel as a home for Jews and as a fountainhead for Jewish cultural life.

This last year has been a difficult one for Israel. It was a year of war and not of peace. It was a year when many Jews have themselves questioned the goals and programs of Zionism — for the first time in years. But for Zionists, every problem, every threat, every attack is a time for rededication and re-examination, of recommitment to the importance of Israel in Jewish life.

As Israel celebrates its thirty-fifth birthday on the fifth of Iyar (which this year falls on April 18) it is an opportune moment for us all, as a community, to remind ourselves of the importance of Zionism to us. Zionism is not a word of approbation as Israel's enemies would have us believe. Zionism is a key to the theory and the reality of Jewish rebirth in our day. Israel's birthday is a time to celebrate and to rededicate ourselves Jewishly to a renewed Jewish life centered in a renewed Jewish State.

To that end, won't you join us for a special Yom Ha-Atzmaut (Independence Day) Service on Monday morning, April 18 at 7:30 A.M. Together, then, we shall praise God for this wondrous day!

— Harlan J. Wechsler

Young Couples League Sponsors Matzah Brei Brunch April 13

On Sunday, April 3 at 11 A.M., the Young Couples League is having a Matzah Brei Brunch and everyone is invited!

Not only will they be cooking up a storm, as the expression goes, but they also will be providing fun and games for all the children.

This is the second brunch of this kind that the Young Couples League has sponsored. The Brunch was so much fun last year that they have decided to make it a tradition.

Reservations are required. Cost per family is only $10, payable in advance.

Dorothy Denburg and John Jacoby are co-chairpersons of the Brunch and they are assisted by Gail Brown and Milt Springut.

Rabbi Presents Bibles To Members of Minyan

At the Men's Club Sabbath Service on Friday, March 18 which was followed by the Congregational Shabbat Dinner, Rabbi Nadich presented inscribed Bibles to eleven men and women who completed their eleven months of mourning during which they recited kaddish in the daily minyan.

Those who received Bibles were Silvia Bass, Richard Brook, Malvin Eisenberg, Miriam Hipsh, Carl Hirsch, Donald Kirsch, Irwin Leisner, Renee Mislow, Frances Perlman, Gertrude Sheft and Dr. Samuel J. Stern.

In appreciation of the constancy and devotion of the men and women who observe eleven months of mourning for a loved one by being faithful members of the daily minyan, inscribed Bibles will be presented annually to those who complete their period of mourning as members of our daily minyan, whether members of the synagogue or not.

Thus, another tradition at Park Avenue Synagogue is born.

Women's Evening Group Meets April 25 at 8 P.M.

Those who attended the AUCTION OF GOODS AND SERVICES last month — an exciting and delightful evening by any standard — might like to get better acquainted with the talented group of women who orchestrated the event: The Women's Evening Group.

At their next monthly meeting on April 25 at 8 P.M., the Group plans to discuss the Auction, call for the report of Nominating Committee and discuss plans for next year.

The Women's Evening Group is open to all women members of the congregation and welcomes new members to join them at any time.

Shira Nadich Levin, 724-9149, and Lite Sabin, 628-2863, are co-chairpersons of the Women's Evening Group. Call them for more information on the purposes and activities of the Group.

The Men's Club Goes To Theater At The Y

Come on along!

The Men's Club is having a theater party and invites the congregation to join them.

On Sunday, April 24 at 7 P.M., the curtain will rise at the 92nd St. Y theater on a production of "The Rise of David Levinsky". Based upon the famous book by the late Abraham Cahan, the great editor of the Jewish Daily Forward, this play with music has received much notice and great critical acclaim.

Reservations for the performance will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. The theater is small, just 70 seats in all, and the Men's Club has taken 50 seats for this performance.

Tickets cost $12.50 per person. Checks must accompany reservations and should be made out to Men's Club, Park Avenue Synagogue and sent to the synagogue, 50 East 87 St., New York, N.Y. 10028.

For more information, please call Dr. Henry Simmons evenings at 865-3455.

A Tribute to Phil Swartz

This year the daily minyan, held at 5:45 p.m. in the Appleman Chapel, celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary. Hundreds of men and women — members of our congregation, as well as other people who have come from all parts of the city, the country and the world — have enjoyed the opportunity of taking part in our daily service for its intrinsic value or for reciting the kaddish as a mourner or upon a yahrzeit. The opportunity to participate in a minyan every day throughout the year is an obligation of a congregation and it is a service to the many people who wish it, or require it.

For the past number of years one person in particular deserves a major portion of the credit for the success of the minyan — Mr. Philip Swartz. As a volunteer he is present at every weekday service to serve as the leader. He makes sure that the minimum quorum of ten men and women be present, he chooses the officiants and often he conducts the services himself. (The services are read by lay people.) But apart from his devotion and dedication as the leader of the daily minyan, he extends a warm and friendly welcome to every new person who enters the Chapel and makes that person feel at home among friends. He gives each man or woman recognition and a sense of feeling wanted. Upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of the minyan, Park Avenue Synagogue extends its warmest appreciation to Mr. Swartz and offers its prayers for his continued health and strength so that he shall continue to serve his fellow Jews, the congregation and Judaism.

High School Students Relate "Summer Experience 1982"

The High School cordially invites the congregational community to attend "Summer Experience 1982" on Sunday, April 10 at 8 P.M.

A dramatic presentation from a diary chronicle of the events and experiences of this past summer will be accompanied by slides and music. Poignantly conveyed by the students who participated in this unique travel experience is a powerful statement of their views of European Jewry and its quality of life.

The trip last summer covered the major population centers beginning in London and continuing through Amsterdam, Antwerp, Paris, Nice, Venice, Florence, Rome, Brindisi, Corfu, Delphi, Athens, Jerusalem, Tel Aviv and ended in the Sinai Desert (Egypt).

Don't miss this evening. Circle the date on your calendar NOW. April 10. 8 P.M.

Volunteers Needed At Doctors Hospital

Doctors Hospital has been an active part of the Yorkville community since 1929. It is a voluntary, not-for-profit health care institution. Volunteers work with the professional staff daily and are provided with training, orientation, recognition, friendship and even hot meals.

Those interested in learning more about serving as volunteers at Doctors Hospital are asked to telephone Ms. Patricia M. Puleo at 870-9183.

Ambassador Lavie

After his arrival in Israel, he devoted his time to the study of the Talmud as well as to political science. In 1946, he joined the Haganah and fought in the War of Independence. In 1949, after the establishment of the State of Israel, he was sent to Eastern Europe by Aliyah Bet to help save the remnants of European Jewry and to bring them to Israel.

Mr. Lavie was News Editor and a senior correspondent of HaAretz, Israel's leading daily paper. He served as Spokesman for the Ministry of Defense and Advisor to both Moshe Dayan and Shimon Peres during their tenures as Defense Minister. He also was Spokesman of the Foreign Ministry and Advisor to the Foreign Minister on Public Affairs, serving with both Moshe Dayan and Yitzhak Shamir. In this capacity he directly participated in all phases of the peace process between Egypt and Israel. In 1968, Mr. Lavie published the first biography of Moshe Dayan.

Mr. Lavie is married and has four children, two of whom are currently serving in the Israel Defense Forces.

Sisterhood looks forward to welcoming the congregation and friends at this most distinguished gathering on April 20 at 8 P.M.

FROM THE LIBRARY

During the month of April, three events of Jewish importance take place: Pesah, Yom Hashoah (Holocaust Day), and Yom HaAtzmaut (Israel Independence Day). SCHOOL NEWS

Item: It was something to see: two, three and four year olds, students in our Early Childhood Center, their parents and grandparents gathered together to celebrate Passover together. The fours had written their own Haggadah and even dramatized some of the songs which everyone had learned. Rabbi Nadich was present to lead the seder. To comment that a good time was had by all is an understatement.

Item: Rabbi Wechsler joined the youngest members of the Early Childhood Center at their Seder party in honor of Passover.

Item: Grade Bet conducted Shabbat morning Services in the Chapel on March 12 and March 19.

Item: Hundreds of Purim gifts were sent to Project Ezra for distribution to elderly Jews living on the Lower East Side.

Item: A representative of the Lubavitcher Hassidim met with Grade Daled for an open discussion on "Life As A Hassid in 1983", as part of the history curriculum unit on Hassidism.

Item: Yom Hashoah, Holocaust Day, will be observed by Grades Daled and Hay on Tuesday, April 12 and Israel's Independence Day will be observed by all students on April 16 and 17.

Item: On Sunday, March 20, the High School's basketball team, The Shooting Stars, met the Temple Israel of Great Neck's Hoopsters. Games are played at the home court of The Shooting Stars and fans are welcome to come out and cheer their team on to victory.

Item: A representative of the Hunger Project will address the High School students and faculty at the April monthly dinner meeting. The aim of these dinner meetings is to provide students of the High School with a broader sense of the social issues of our time.

Item: The Summer In Israel group is fast filling up and those teenagers who are interested in learning more about the program are encouraged to act quickly. Although priority is given to students enrolled in the High School program, places are available as well for teens not currently enrolled. Call the High School Office for more information: 369-2600.

Item: The staff this summer will be augmented once again by graduates of the Helpen-Wimpfheimer Fellowship, the training program for High School alumni/ae which provides staff members for these unique high school summer programs.

Walter Charnizon (now studying at the Hebrew University), Larry Kraus (a student this semester at the American University in Cairo) and Stefanie Siegmund (completing her junior year at Hebrew University) will be working with the Summer In Israel group this year. If you are in Jerusalem this summer, please make plans to stop by and visit.

Further details about this truly unique summer experience for teens can be had by

Eternal Light TV Program In Celebration Of Passover

On Sunday, April 3 from 1 - 1:30 P.M., NBC Channel 4 will telecast a program, "Home for Passover". The program is one of the Eternal Light television programs sponsored by the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

In celebration of the Passover holidays, "Home for Passover", a light and warm tale, describes the trials and tribulations of a Hebrew teacher and his young student assistant in their endeavors to reach home in time for the Passover holidays. This humorous drama is based upon the classic short story by Sholom Aleichem and features Gene Wilder, Sada Thompson and Boris Tumarin.

Next in the series of Eternal Light television programs will take place on Sunday, May 8, when Channel 4 will telecast, from 1 - 2 P.M., a program entitled "Zubin and the IPO", a documentary featuring Zubin Mehta, Life Director of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, Isaac Stern, Itzhak Perlman, Leonard Bernstein and other noted musicians.

On June first, Park Avenue Synagogue will hold a dinner to benefit the Seminary. In addition to sponsoring the Eternal Light television program the Seminary maintains three campuses — in New York, California and Israel, the Jewish Museum, the Ramah camps, the Melton Research Institute, a world renowned library and, on another level, fosters a continuing dialogue with leading Christian theologians and ministers. The support given by us to the Seminary is our assurance of a Jewish future. Plan now to be part of that future. Attend the Jewish Theological Seminary dinner at the synagogue on June first.

A Special Thank You To Donors To Blood Drive

A special thank you is expressed to the twenty-seven men and women who donated blood last month during the day long Blood Drive at the synagogue.

The Blood Drive, sponsored by Club 87 and chaired by Stu Weiss, was rated "a good beginning". Next year it is hoped that more than twice this number will come out and donate blood.

Hebrew Free Loan Society Helps College Students

College students and their parents faced with the problem of meeting tuition cost because of curtailment in the Federal Government student assistant programs may be able to qualify for aid from the Hebrew Free Loan Society of New York.

In response to the problem, and to mark its ninetieth anniversary, the Hebrew Free Loan Society inaugurated a new program of interest-free loans for students and their families living in the metropolitan area according to the Society's president, Milton Schwartz. An initial grant was given to the program by Mrs. Rose Schwartz, a vice president of the Society and a pioneer in free loan philanthropy, and has since been augmented by others who have added to the fund. In the first year of the program's operation a half million dollars in loans were granted. The fund is known as the Schwartz Scholarship Loan Fund.

The funds are designed to be a supplement to the student's basic financial resources and are limited to 25% of annual tuition and related costs up to a maximum of $2,000 for each applicant who qualifies. Loans are available only to families living in New York City and its surrounding suburbs but the student may attend any accredited college in the country.

The loans are similar to those provided by the Federal government's guaranteed Parent Loan Program with respect to the repayment schedule (on a monthly basis over the period of one year) - but unlike those loans are interest-free. Loans are renewable each year as long as the student matriculates.

For more information on the Schwartz Scholarship Loan Fund, call (212) 687-0188. The Hebrew Free Loan Society is a beneficiary agency of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies and the UJA-Federation Campaign.

Glass Sculpture Becomes Part Of Synagogue's Art Collection

A glass sculpture by Herman Perlman entitled "Scrolls of the Law" has been given to the synagogue by Mr. and Mrs. George M. Shapiro. The sculpture will be placed in the Family Room where it will add beauty and dignity to the decoration of the room as well as serve as a valuable addition to the art collection of the synagogue.

Perlman began his career as a staff artist on the Washington Post. He subsequently became famous for his caricatures of world personalities, people in politics and in the theater.

He went on to experiment with etching in glass. After several years of experimentation, he developed equipment that forces air and sand to carve deep into thick glass, producing dimensional glass carvings. He works with a fine pointed knife and a jet of air and sand to produce his glass sculptures.

He sculpted a lifesize Abraham Lincoln in glass for the Lincoln birthplace museum in Hodgenville, Kentucky. He carved the eleven thousand names of casualties in World War II and Korea on a glass wall 110 feet long and 30 feet high in the Virginia World War II Memorial in Richmond. And several glass panels of his are in the White House.

The congregation thanks Mr. and Mrs. Shapiro for this distinctive gift to the synagogue.

Congratulations

The congregation offers a hearty Mazal Tov to:

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cohen, upon the marriage of their son, Steven, to Amy Berko.

Mr. Joseph I. Lubin, upon the engagement of his nephew, John Copen, to Janet Rothman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olden, upon the birth of their son, Michael Benjamin Wigo Olden; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Felberbaum, upon the birth of their nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Seigel, upon the engagement of their son, Mark, to Holly Halper.

Condolences

Park Avenue Synagogue extends heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved of our congregation and to their families:

Mrs. Herbert Frommer, upon the death of her mother, Harriet Hakmaier.

Mrs. William Jacoby, upon the death of her husband; Dr. John Jacoby, upon the death of his uncle.
